HEBREW WORD PICTURES

Revealing Prophetic Truths. By Dr. Frank T. Seekins

Every Hebrew letter is both a sound and a picture. Here are three interesting examples:

By taking the Hebrew letter ע Ayin, which means an eye, (ע in ancient Hebrew) and adding it to ברית (ברית ע) breet, or covenant, the word עברית, ivreet, (עברית ע) - Hebrew, is formed. This word picture tells us that the Hebrew language reveals the covenant.

The letter Alef, א which means an ox, (א in ancient Hebrew) symbolizes: first, or strong. The letter Chet, ח is the picture of a fence. Together, they spell the Hebrew word אח (אח ח), brother. The Hebrew word picture tells us that brothers and sisters are the strong fence, or the protectors in life.

By taking the Hebrew letter ד Dalet, which means a door, (ד in ancient Hebrew) and adding to it the letter ת Tav, which means a sign (ת), we get: דת, dat, which means Faith or Religion. Faith then, is the door of the ת sign.
